2004- ANOTHER RECORD YEAR OF GIVING

South Carolina Free Will Baptists surpassed 2003's record gifts by over $60,000 as they gave a record total of $1,077,512.43 through the SCFWB State Office to help the work of God in South Carolina and around the world. Who gave and where the gifts were directed are found on pages 5-7.

This year, for the first time ever, a single church broke the $100,000 barrier in their giving. Pastor Jacob Creech and the Horse Branch FWB Church of Turbeville (who have led the State in giving for 3 years in a row) are to be commended for their consistent and generous giving to God's work.

It has been a tremendous joy this year for the SCFWB Executive Secretary to represent our State at various local church functions, at state and national events, and on 2 mission trips to foreign countries (India and Japan). In addition to these activities he managed the daily business of the State Office, published 8 editions of the "Informer", maintained the SCFWB web site, and helped churches with pastoral and legal matters.

Sadly, while giving through the State Office continued to increase, giving to the State Office is down nearly $5000 this year. Out of 125 FWB churches in our State only 74 contributed anything to the State Office (14 of these contributed $100 or less). Had it not been for cost cutting steps made in past years and the fact that our Christian Book Store assumed payment of all utilities this year then the last 2 editions of the "Informer" could not have been printed. Full reports of income and expenses, as well as a revised salary budget for 2005 can be found on page 7.

The South Carolina State Association of Original Free Will Baptists, Inc. will hold their 63rd annual session on February 24-25, 2005 at Evergreen FWB Church, Conway, SC (Central Conference). The 2005 theme "Building Through Unity" will be presented by a speaker from each of the conferences that make up our State Association.

The General Board will meet Wednesday, Feb. 23rd at 10am at Evergreen FWB Church to hear reports from all state agencies. Everyone is invited to this meeting.

The Minister's Breakfast Fellowship from the Lake City area, the Florence-Darlington area, and the Conway area decided to come together for their annual Pastor and Wife Christmas supper. This year's event was hosted by Gilead FWB Church and included a powerful devotion by Pastor Buddy Seay and a musical concert by Tommy Graham.

In addition to the great time of food and fellowship two events made this a very special time. On the Friday before the meal a person donated $500 to cover the cost of the meals so everyone got to eat free- Glory! Then several businesses joined together to give some "door prize" gifts and it turned out that there were exactly enough gifts so that every couple received one. Isn't it wonderful to see how God's works.

Gilead FWB Church celebrated Pastor Appreciation Day on Sunday, December 5th by presenting Pastor Larry McAlister with a new Signature Series Bible and a gift of money for he and wife, Retha. They also surprised the Pastor by inviting his good friend, Rev. Ken Cash of the Una FWB Church to come and preach the morning message.

Rev. Kenneth Cash

The fellowship meal that followed allowed the members to come by and express their appreciation to Pastor Larry for his faithful and dedicated service

A long hard week of work, that did not end until very late Saturday night, brought a big smile to the faces of the members of Heartland FWB Church, Lancaster when they arrived on Sunday, December 5th. New carpet was installed, the pulpit area was remodeled with new altars installed, and a new baptismal pool was installed and ready for use.

The newly remodeled sanctuary of Heartland FWB Church

During the dedication service Pastor Eddie Hinson declared that the Church had entered 2004 with a list of 4 things they hoped to accomplish and they were ending the year with 9 other major accomplishments completed in addition to those 4. After the dedication message by SCFWB Executive Secretary, Mike Jones, everyone gathered at the new altars to dedicate themselves and the newly remodeled sanctuary to the service of the Lord.

Following the Service Pastor Eddie, his wife, Cathy, and member, Patsy Rollings surprised the congregation by revealing that they had prepared a meal for the entire Church to enjoy.

During the service that night 12 people were baptized in the new baptismal- That brought a "Glory" in the house!!

Pee Dee Bible Institute had their graduation and awards night on Sunday, December 5th at Southside FWB Church of Darlington. Rev. Chris Fannin preached the message and Rev. and Mrs Wayne Gibson provided the special music. Pastor Leroy Lowery then presented diplomas to the seven graduates for successful completion of 4 years of studies. Following the service the host church provided refreshments.

Winter Semester classes on the Home and Family will begin Jan 13, 2005.

News from Randall House Publications:

Beginning in the Spring of 2005 the CLEAR Teaching Essential CD will follow these improved guidelines:

- 1) The volume of the children's vocals will be increased.
- 2) The volume of the drums and the bass guitar will be decreased
- 3) All scripture quoted will be KJV.
- 4) Songs that are stylistically too similar to secular music (hip hop, pop, rock) will not be used.
- 5) The children's editor and/or selected staff will listen to and approve all songs on the CD.

The Building Committee of Liberty FWB Church, Lancaster, SC submitted the following article.

When Others Say You Can't

In the early Spring of 2002 the congregation of Liberty FWB Church of Lancaster had outgrown its present building. The plans began to build a new building that would seat approximately 500 people with an adjoining Sunday School department (Which included 6 large Sunday School rooms, Sunday School office, Pastor's office, and 2 large restrooms. In order to accomplish this the church had to borrow $800,000. When they went to the bank the chief loan officer said, "You can't build a building that size and pay for it. You can't afford it, its not possible." Believing that God said that all things are possible to them that believe, the Building Committee went to another Bank, got the loan, and built the building. In April of 2003 the church moved into the beautiful new building.

Around the first of November of 2003 the Building Committee met and, after much prayer, decided to recommend that 2004 would be a sacrifice year for Liberty FWB Church. In December of 2003 the plan was presented to, and approved by, the church. On December 19, 2004 the congregation of Liberty FWB Church celebrated "Victory Sunday". Not only has the Church made every payment since the loan was received but it has paid an additional $105,000 on the principal of the loan (Glory!).

That loan officer said we could not do it but when God says you can do something then, if you will follow His directions, it will be done. - The Building Committee of Liberty FWB Church, Lancaster.

During their annual Home Coming Service on Sunday, November 21st, Mullins Marion FWB Church burnt the mortgage on their building and became completely debt free- Glory!. Rev. Neil Hinson is the Pastor.

Pastor Carroll Bazen and wife, Susanna, were all aglow after their special Christmas Offering at Grace FWB Church of Lake City. Each year the Church asks people to give a special offering to the Lord's work on the Sunday before Christmas. This year's goal was $18,000 which would enable them to begin work on a new Family Life Center. The people decided to almost double that with gifts in excess of $32,000- Is there a Glory anywhere in the house??

2005 STATE MINISTER'S RETREAT MARCH 10-11, 2005

At the 2004 State Meeting a Resolution was passed asking the SCFWB State Office to pursue the possibility of having a state wide Pastors Retreat. Pastor Jimmy Brown of Myrtle Beach was cooperating with the State Office in preparing for this event in the fall of 2004. His untimely death caused a delay.

Assistant Director, Rickey Evans has put together a wonderful program for a Pastor's Retreat on Thursday and Friday, March 10-11, 2005 with special guest speaker, Rev. Richard Atwood, Director of Missionary Assistance for the National Home Missions Department. More Information will be mailed out soon but mark your calendars for this special event.

Several members of Converse FWB Church surprised Pastor Todd Black recently by presenting him with a brand new KIA to replace his worn out Buick- Glory!

S C Conference CTS Convention will meet February 12th at Sand Hill FWB Church, Coward. This will be a regular meeting as well as a practice competition meeting.

District Run Off is scheduled for March 19th and the State Run Off is scheduled for April 16th.

The following article was submitted by Rev. Joe Cagle, Pastor of Little Bethel FWB Church.

In our annual church business meeting we included in our church budget to support our FWB Christian Schools in South Carolina in the same way we support our foreign missions, home missions, children's home, etc.

We must convince our people to withdraw their children from the godless public schools. Christian education is one of if not the greatest ministry among FWB today. I know some will say, "But we have some good Christian teachers in public schools in our area." I heard one preacher say he had a 30-minute chapel in a certain public school each week. Sure, Satan will allow that in some areas, because he knows he has 34 1/2 hours left every week to teach a captive audience his evil, wicked doctrine of humanism where God and the Bible is not allowed.

The only thing a Christian teacher can do in a public school is to teach Satan's curriculum. They must teach evolution over Biblical creation. They cannot teach abstinence from strong drink or sex before marriage. They cannot teach that life begins at conception and abortion is murder. They must teach homosexuality as a respectable, alternative life-style and teach they were born this way. Now, in some states and this is spreading fast, five year olds are taught to accept same sex marriages.

Thank God this year, 2004, our Southern Baptist brethren are recommending Christian parents to withdraw their children from the godless public schools in favor of home schooling or placing their children in Christian schools.

In a hospital waiting room the other day a retired Pentecostal pastor said to me, "The greatest failure of my ministry and our denomination has been the failure to provide Christian schools for our youth." He said they had salvaged a few for Jesus, but we have lost thousands to a godless public school system. Praise God for our FWB Christian schools in South Carolina and across America.

Brethren, Pastors, Preachers, and Churches, in 2005, let's support our Christian schools as they try with all their heart and soul to save our children from the evil influence of sin. Let's pray and labor together with them for the glory of God until he comes. Sincerely yours in Christ,
Rev. Joe Cagle, Pastor Little Bethel FWB Church

PS For the record, your South Carolina Superintendent of Public Education Inez Tenenbaum said, "Not to allow homosexuals to teach your children in the public schools would just be un-American." Who's teaching your children?

Submitted by Socastee FWB Church:

We, as the body of the Socastee Original Freewill Baptist Church, are very grateful to be able to provide our Pastor with a new 32' x 80' home. In addition, we have also been blessed to add a new 1600 sq. ft. educational wing to our Church. Our goal is to reach as many troubled kids as possible and get them off the streets. We would like to invite everyone to come out and see us when you are in our area.

Brief Note: Praise the Lord, our first sermon of the New Year we saw 1 saved, 1 rededication, 4 baptized, and 1 joined the church! God is Good!!

Rev. Darren Squires is the Pastor of this growing Church.

One of the foundation principles in my life was taught to a lost boy by a Christian Public School Teacher. Seven years later, when I became a Christian, this principle (The greatest of all shall be servant of all) was already implanted deep in my life because of the love and testimony of this teacher.

As a Pastor I always had in my church many Christians who taught in public schools or worked in administration. I thank the Lord for their willingness to make a stand for God and make a difference in the lives of many young people. Rev. Mike Jones.

The Christmas celebration was very special at the Hispanic Mission in Una. In addition to the special music and other special events 7 people accepted Jesus as Savior- Glory!

In 2004 116 people accepted Jesus as their Savior because of the ministry of the Comunidad Hispana FWB Church (I believe I will have to put another "Glory!" here). In addition, several students for the Gwen Hendrix Hispanic Institute have come from this church. Missionary Geradro Rodriguez is making plans to begin another mission in the upstate area during 2005. Thank you for your prayers and support.

NOTE- Mrs. Maria's Dad is 80 years old and very sick. Because of immigration complications she cannot go to visit him. Please pray for her and for the family during this time.

Roll Call Sunday will be Easter Sunday, March 27, 2005. Let's have the largest attendance, and the most people saved, in our history.

**Churches should provide their Pastor a W-2 wage statement by January 31, 2005.

**Pastors need to designate their salary in January and have it recorded in the Church minutes (If you have already designated and there are no changes then you do not have to re-designate).

**Mileage rates for 2004 were 37.5 cent per mile. In 2005 the rate is 40.5 cents per mile.

Evergreen FWB Church is located at 4070 Hwy. 501 Conway, SC 29526. Approximately half way between Aynor and Conway on Highway 501. The Church is located directly beside the Highway.

Pastor Larry Monday- Home: (843) 488-2765, Church (843) 365-0254

There will be a Teen Youth Rally at Peace FWB Church, Florence, SC April 21-23, 2005 at 7:00pm each night. Guest speakers will be from Columbia International University and Drama Performances will be presented by Crossway Church

Andrea, Lily, Levi, Andy Moore

Andrea and I thank the Lord that we were able to spend this Christmas with our family in the great state of South Carolina. Lily, our 2 and a half month old, is doing well. Everything is on schedule for us to head back to Brazil in May of 2005. Unfortunately, we are far short of our goal to raise 100,000 dollars for church planting. If you would like to help us out in this area, please earmark your gift as follows: Andy Moore/ Vision fund. Thank you for your prayers and support. Andy, Andrea, Levi, and Lily Moore

Exchange rate realities- Missionary Carlisle Hanna reminds us about the problems missionaries face with a falling dollar. In the past 2 years the exchange on the Indian Rupee has dropped from 48.85 to 43.50. That means that $10,000 is now worth only $8,769 (Which is why the price of a new church has gone from $12,000 to $15,000).

Tim and Kristi Johnson (Spain) are available for services. They can be reached at Little Bethel FWB Church parsonage (843) 386-3071 or by contacting the SCFWB State Office.

Free Will Baptist International Missions

The Board of Free Will Baptist International Missions met December 8, 2004 in Antioch, TN. During the 10-hour meeting, five new missionaries were appointed- Angela Emerick (Norfolk, VA) will join the "M" Team in France as a career missionary. Steve and Donna Olson (Russelville, Ark) were approved for career missionary service in France with plans to develop a camp/retreat/ministry center. Retired missionaries Ledgel and Sharon Ferguson (Glendale, Ky) received a two year short-term appointment to France.

Missionaries Dennis and Trena Owen (Uruguay) and Tim and Kristi Johnson (Spain) were reappointed to another term of service in their respective fields. Mike and Cathy Corley were granted a six-month leave of absence to begin on Jan 1, 2005.

The board voted to accept the recommendation to cancel the 2005 missions retreat for financial reasons. The board also took various other actions to significantly reduce the Support Services deficit.
