2010 SC FWB State Meeting

The 68th annual session of the South Carolina Free Will Baptist State Association meeting took place on February 25-26, 2010, at Evergreen Free Will Baptist Church in Conway. The theme of "Conforming to His Likeness" prevailed throughout the meeting. With a brief snow fall taking place outside and great fellowship on the inside, the meeting convened at 9 AM on Thursday with the congregational hymn "Lily of the Valley" led by Reverend Bruce Kimbrel and ended on Friday with the noon meal provided by the Evergreen Church and the Central Association. Reverend Sherwood Lee, pastor at Sand Hill Free Will Baptist Church, began his 15th year serving as state moderator. Reverend Buddy Seay was presented a plaque of appreciation for serving 14 years as assistant moderator. The state body accepted all reports that were given in the meeting including the ones shared at the General Board meeting on February 24, 2010. It was approved to appoint the Nominating Committee a year in advance to serve for the following year to give the Nominating Committee time to evaluate the upcoming slate and recommendations. FWB Children's Home Director Todd Parrish and the Children's Home board presented Missionary Jim Fairchild a check of $1,000.00 to be applied to the Aiken Loan Fund. The state association also approved the sale of a small plot of the Children's Home property located on the other side of Atkinson Street in Turbeville. It was recommended and approved that the buyer pay $5,000 plus closing cost for the plot that has remained unused by the Children's Home for many years. Director Todd Parrish noted that the funds from the sale of the property would be applied to the special projects account which will help provide a new roof for the boy's dormitory.

NAFWB Executive Secretary Keith Burden in his report shared that any rooms for the National Convention not canceled by June 1st will be charged without refund to an individual's credit card. The Feasibility Committee voted on by the state body in the 2009 meeting recommended that both the Youth Ministries and CTS Youth Competition boards be combined into one Youth Ministries Board. The Thursday morning devotion was brought by Reverend Stephen Hyman. Reverend Jeff Cockrell, pastor at Black River FWB Church in Andrews, brought the Thursday morning message from 1 Peter 2. Evergreen FWB Church served a lunch of ribeye steaks and baked potatoes. After lunch, Reverend Kenneth Cash, the pastor at First FWB Church in Una, shared a stirring devotion from the book of Jonah. After an afternoon of various reports, the state meeting was dismissed until the Thursday evening service. During the Thursday evening service, Executive Secretary Todd Smith presented Reverend Mike Edwards a plaque for Horse Branch FWB Church being the highest giving church in 2009. Special music was presented by the Evergreen Trio (Pam Tyler, Cynthia Jones, Billy Jones). Dr. Garnett Reid, Old Testament professor at the Free Will Baptist Bible College in Nashville, brought the message from the book of Exodus for the evening service. The business continued on Friday morning with Reverend Mark Leonard, the pastor at Mt. Elon FWB Church, leading everyone in a congregational hymn. Reverend Danny Stone, the pastor at Tabernacle FWB Church in Coward, preached the morning devotion. Reverend Thad Jacobs, the pastor at Happy Home FWB Church in Andrews, concluded the state meeting with a message from 1 Samuel 30. Before going to lunch, Moderator Sherwood Lee shared remarks from Psalm 17. The meeting concluded with an authentic Hispanic lunch being served by Evergreen FWB Church and their Hispanic Mission. A full and detailed report of the 2010 South Carolina Free Will Baptist State Association meeting can be found in the minutes on our web site at www.scfwb.com. Next year's meeting will be hosted by the Eastern Conference and will be held February 24-25, 2011.

SC Conference Minutes Book Compiled

Dr. Robert and Mrs. Clara Picirilli spent many hours transcribing the South Carolina Conference minutes from 1858-1930. The minutes were printed in an 8.5 x 11 spiral bound soft cover book with CD included and are available at the Free Will Baptist Christian Book and Supply for $15.00 a copy. Since the South Carolina Conference existed before our South Carolina Free Will Baptist State Association and before some of our other conferences were formed, this book contains a rich history on the South Carolina Conference but also of churches in other conferences within our state. Please feel free to stop by or call us at 843-657-2091 to buy your copy today!

Mr. Butch Baggette, member at Liberty FWB Church in Manning, after buying the book found history regarding his granddad listed there.

Moore's Continue Serving in Brazil

Approved as career missionaries under FWB International Missions in December 1999, Andy and Andrea Moore have continued to serve faithfully in Brazil. Their two children, Levi and Lily, were born during their service with the Mission.

Recent policy decisions by the board and administrative staff have caused the Moores to feel their ministry would be better suited by heading in a different direction. The board of FWB International Missions accepted the resignation of Andy and Andrea on March 1, 2010. In appreciation of their time with the Mission, the International Missions Board accepted their resignation by saying, "The FWB International board deeply regrets to receive the resignation of Andy and Andrea Moore. We are thankful to God for their ministry in Brazil." In a letter to the board, Andy said, "I am committed to the gospel according to Free Will Baptist doctrine and my desire to see the gospel preached throughout the world remains unchanged." Andy and Andrea Moore will continue with FWB International Missions through April 30, 2010. Andy and Andrea will then be coming under First FWB Church in Inman, SC where Andrea grew up. They will continue to serve in Brazil as Free Will Baptist missionaries, and they will continue to need your financial support and prayers. Any monies designated for them will be sent through First FWB Church in Inman. Feel free to continue sending your gifts for the Moores through the SC FWB State Office, PO Box 9, Turbeville, SC 29162.

"Operation Christmas Child" by Jane Yates

Calvary Free Will Baptist Church of Georgetown petitioned their church to participate in "Operation Christmas Child" to fill shoe boxes to be sent overseas at Christmas time to help needy children. For the first year participating in this project, 30 boxes seemed like a good goal to reach. However, when the first 30 boxes were filled, an additional 10 boxes had to be purchased. Then at the last, an additional 18 boxes had to be purchased to hold all the items donated. In all, there were 58 boxes, almost double the original goal, received in order to send for Operation

Christmas Child. We commend the Calvary Church for a job well done in changing the lives of children around the world.

Aycocks Continue Serving in Brazil

David and Annette Aycock were approved as short-term missionaries under FWB International Missions in August 1996 and as career missionaries in December 1999. Their ministry continues in the state of Minas Gerais. Due to recent policy decisions by the board and administrative staff, David and Annette Aycock resigned with FWB International Missions on March 1, 2010. Their employment with International Missions goes through May 31, 2010. David and Annette Aycock will continue to serve as Free Will Baptist missionaries in Brazil, but at this time, a decision has not been made regarding their sending church. In his letter of resignation, David said, "We rejoice that six churches have been planted, four young men have been ordained to the ministry, three young men have been licensed, and seven other young men have answered the call to ministry. A seminary has been established to train leaders, and there are prospects to plant other churches in the near future." The Aycocks will continue to need your financial support and prayers. Feel free to continue sending your gifts for the Aycocks through the SC FWB State Office, PO Box 9, Turbeville, SC 29162.
