Martin Luther (1483-1546), initiator of the Protestant Reformation, said, "I have held many things in my hands, and I have lost them all; but whatever I have placed in God's hands, that I still possess." Many individuals and churches gained great rewards by placing financial support in the hands of God by supporting missionaries and ministries around the world in 2010. They sacrificially gave so that missionaries can stay on the field, so that our State Office can operate, so that our Children's Home can minister to children, and so that other ministries can continue in the Lord's work. On behalf of our State Office, missionaries, and ministries around the world, thank you for your sacrifice and faithful support.

Last year was a tough year financially for several of our churches. Our Sunday school literature sales were down $4,000.00 last year from the previous year due to the economy. Many of our churches had to make cut backs in order to help make ends meet within the church. Please continue to pray for the many who struggle through these tough economic times. For the past three years, we have been able to provide free shipping for the summer quarter; however, due to financial constraints, we will most likely not be able to continue free shipping for this year's summer quarter. We greatly appreciate all Sunday school literature orders which enable us to serve you, our churches, conferences, and our missionaries. Thank you for allowing us to partner together in ministry.

In Christ, Todd Smith
Executive Secretary

2011 SCFWB YOUTH MINISTRIES REPORT

2010 was a great year for SCFWB Youth Ministries! We started the year in June with our Teen Camp at the Anchorage. Fifty six teens and sponsors gathered for an exciting week of spiritual awakening and sports. Bro. Jonathan Blankenship of Charlotte N.C. served as our Camp Evangelist. There were several decisions made.

Junior Camp was held the first week of August at Camp Pee Dee in Marion. We had one hundred fifteen campers, sponsors and staff. Bro. Vince Tharpe of Art Alive served as our Camp Evangelist. Each night he drew a different chalk drawing with lights and movement. It was awesome! He really connected with the campers and staff. There were many decisions during lengthy altar calls each night. The drama team from White Savannah FWB Church came on Thursday night and challenged all present to live for the Lord. It was greatly used of the Lord.

The Fall Retreat was held in Columbia in October with Bro. Ken Cash doing the preaching. Approximately sixty teens and sponsors attended this event. A special thanks to Jonathan Postlewaite and Blake Coghill for overseeing the retreat.

What a wonderful opportunity is ours to serve our Lord Jesus Christ and His precious children! This past year has been full of excitement and growth, anxious moments and opportunities to trust God's amazing provision and experience His abiding peace. We can honestly say that it is a joy and privilege to be able to serve the SC State Association of FWB by serving young people who have been hurt by life.

New Children!

This past year saw the SC FWB Home for Children realize again why God called us into existence in 1949. Entering our 62nd year of ministry, we have begun to experience the opportunity to help more children know the healing love of Jesus. When I reported to the State Association this time last year, we were serving 9 children. Today, we serve 26 children! And twice since December, 2010, we have had 30 children in our care. These numbers do not include the 5 children whose parents are Staff members. (We have 31 children who live in our dorms, currently) The SC FWB Home for Children is being utilized again to serve significant numbers of young people, and for that we are so thankful!

New Challenges!

Increasing numbers of children bring increasing challenges. We have experienced a growth of 300% since January, 2010. Therefore the needs of the ministry have increased exponentially. The amount of food, electricity, clothes, and other necessities of life have increased as our numbers have gone up. While we are so grateful for our churches and friends who have increased their support to help with these needs, we are trusting the Lord for more churches and supporters to partner with us. Also, increased growth brings challenges on how to meet the increasing mental, emotional, and spiritual needs as well. Today's hurting youth present a myriad of problems vastly different than those faced a generation ago. We must continue to stay vigilant to find Godly ways to help meet their challenging needs.

New Changes!

As the SC FWB Home for Children continues to grow and reach out to more children in need, we are constantly praying that God will grant us wisdom to implement changes necessary to meet the challenges. More and more children who are in need today are being placed (by law, in many cases) in a broken state, foster system. We must find a way to reach these children and provide those in authority with a Christian alternative to foster care. This should be done with the greatest care and caution, so as not to alter and avoid the mandate placed upon the Children's Home to be a God-honoring, Christ-centered Home that promotes, provides, and presents the life-changing Gospel to every child. We believe this can be done.

We must also continue to change the ways we stay in touch with those who support the Children's Home through their prayers and financial gifts. We have resumed publication of Children's Life, our newsletter. Children's Life was printed last Fall for the first time in two years. We desire for every church and partner to receive a copy. We hope to have the next edition ready to print in February, 2011. We are also looking to expand our presence on the Web and seeking to schedule more services and ministry opportunities in the coming year. We would love to come to your church and share our ministry.

In closing, let me say "thank-you" for the awesome privilege and opportunity to serve SC Free Will Baptists and our kids. They honor me with their love and God has favored me by allowing me to be a part of a "parenting team" of dedicated Christian workers who desperately love our children. I am grateful to work with a tremendous staff of Godly men and women who minister to our kids in a selfless, caring way each and every day. They are truly a blessing to minister with.

We invite you to provide us with three things: your prayers to sustain us; your personal visits to encourage us; and your financial provision to enable us to continue to help those that our Lord sends to us for refuge from the storms of life.

May God bless you for what you do for our kids!

Rev. F. Todd Parrish
Executive Director
