74th Annual SCFWB State Meeting

On February 25th-26th the Seventy Fourth annual session of the SCFWB State Meeting took place at the Gilead FWB Church in Lake City. The Convention saw good crowds every day and the Thursday evening crowd (featured here) was very well attended also. This year at the State Meeting, the theme was "The Whole Church, Taking The Whole Gospel, To The Whole World". The featured speakers this year were Rev. Don Hanna who shared about the difficulties and hardships associated with following Christ, especially on the mission field. He related personal stories of what it was like for Bro. Carlisle and family in India.

The Thursday evening speaker was Rev. Carlisle
Hanna. He spoke about the work in India, tracing Free Will Baptist roots all the back to the 1800's Friday morning our speak was Rev.

Stanley Rajkumar, and brought a powerful message out of Romans on being not ashamed of the Gospel. Bro Stanley spent the month of February in South Carolina and spoke in many churches during that time. He is the pastor of the

This year marked 65 years since the SCFWB State Association endorsed Bro. Carlisle Hanna to be their missionary in India. This anniversary prompted the Executive Board to announce "Project 65" Free Will Baptist families across the State were asked to send 65 dollars in effort build a church for a congregation in Bhuttabari, Nepal. Our goal was $50,000.00. People from all across South Carolina responded with generous gifts. We received funds from Nashville, Pennsylvania and even California! After the Thursday evening offering was taken up our total was $48,522.28, but the offerings haven't stopped coming in since, and as of last count we are at $53,000.00! Glory!

Bro Carlisle Hanna wanted to include this note to the people and churches who gave.

Dear Ones,

Greetings in Jesus' wonderful name.

We, the Hanna family, are deeply grateful to all the families and churches who gave to Project 65 to make it such a success. When the check was revealed, we were too overwhelmed to know what to say. We are thankful for the love shown to us and to our churches in dear India through your response to this project. We will look forward to being able to show you a picture of the building once it is completed. All of us will have the joy of knowing our people at Bhuttabari will have a good place in which to worship. Thank you, too, for your prayers for our family here and our large family in India.

Bro. Carlisle and family

Also at the this year at the State Meeting,

Rev. Marty Cox was honored for his years of service as the Treasurer for the State Association, as well as his 20 years serving on the SCFWB Youth Board. Assistant treasurer Rev. Scott Ard will serve as the new Treasurer for the State Association, and Rev. Joey Postlewaite will serve on the SCFWB youth Board In place of

Bro. Marty Cox

Other Convention news:

The State Convention voted to form a Disaster Relief Board. The following motion was made, seconded, and carried.

"It is recommended by the Executive Board and therefore moved that the South Carolina State Association of Free Will Baptists, in light of recent catastrophic events, such as the South Carolina Flood of 2015, and the likelihood of similar events in the future; form a Disaster Relief Board, for the purpose of assisting Free Will Baptist Churches, as well as the general public in effort to promote the welfare of Free Will Baptists and to extend the gospel to whosoever will."

The New SCFWB website was featured at the State Meeting (scfwb.com) this year highlighting the various ministries of our state, showcasing its ease of use and functionality. Some of the best site features are:

- A search function on every page
- A Get Directions option with every church's site
- A Mobile friendly version

The introduction of Solid Grounds Coffee Shop was also presented to our state this year. Solid Grounds features a vast menu of coffee drinks and various baked goods. It provides a relaxing Christian environment for patrons to enjoy a little quiet time to do work or have a bible study. It has promoted the sale of much more books in the bookstore as well. Come by on your way to Myrtle Beach or schedule a group event such as a youth night, bible study, or Ladies/Men's fellowship.

Historic South Carolina Flood provides opportunity for Free Will Baptists to shine.

On October 4th, 2015 in what was termed by SC Governor Nikki Haley, as a 1000 year flood, South Carolinians braced for the onslaught of over 20" inches of rain in a 24 hour period, brought on by a fire hose of tropical moisture concentrated on the midlands and coastal areas, the effects were felt immediately as flash flooding ravaged local areas, and then as waters began to recede into rivers and estuaries, communities downstream braced for record flood levels in the coming days. Free Will Baptists across the area fared well as a whole, with one church being affected directly, and others a near miss.

Featured right is the sanctuary of the Unity Free Will Baptist Church in Johnsonville. With approximately 6" of water in the sancutary and 18" in the fellowship hall, both church folks and other Free Will Baptists quickly got to work with clean up to help begin the process of drying out. Along with the Unity Church, Free Will Baptists and their families were also affected by the flooding. News of the damage stirred the hearts of Free Will Baptists across America, and funds began to come in to aid in the relief efforts. Free Will Baptists in South Carolina rallied together nationally, some by conference, some by church, and others individually in order to provide relief to flood victims.

The True life Conference rallied to the cry for help gathering supplies from water, and clothing to personal Hygene items to baby formula.

Shine Conference

The Shine conference was held at Fairview Freewill Baptist on Oct. 24th 2015. This conference was made possible by a grant from the FWB Foundation. It was geared toward girls ages 12-18, moms, and youth workers. The guest speakers for the girls were Rachel Bryant (RN) and Beth Bryant. Rachel took time to explain to the young ladies about their anatomy, and what's going on in their changing bodies. Beth spoke to the girls about finding their value in Christ.

Sarah Sargent got real with adults about what their children are really going through in today's society, and she also gave great tips for safe guarding our children from dangers that arise in technology. Ana Batts spoke to us about specific ways we can minister to children today.

The girls made "GLOW Girl Glasses" to show that they can stand out for Christ in this dark world! Elizabeth Hodges (WNAC) took time at the end of the day to give us all wonderful words of encouragement, and prayer for guidance.

You're Never Too Young to Support Missions: 7 year old Lexi Goff learned that you are never too young to support missions. She utilized her skills in tying survival bracelets from parachute chord in order to raise money for missions in Spain and Africa. Lexi raised $835.00 for Neil and Mandi Morgan in Spain and $100.26 for the Simmons in Africa ($935.26 in Total!). This little entrepreneur utilized her skills as an administrator to enlist the help of her family and church in the effort to raise the funds.

This great work caught the attention of IM and prompted the Director Clint Morgan, and Dir. Of Church Relations, Sam McVay to arrange a meeting with Lexi at the SCFWB State Meeting in order to commend her hard work and present her with several gifts --on the night that happened to be her Birthday!

Lexi is a member of Horse Branch FWB Church

Pastor Donnie and Trudy Miles Celebrate 25 Years at Peace FWB Church

Miles doesn't know how many sermons he has preached throughout those 25 years, but he said members have been gracious to listen to him for that long. He preaches at the church on Sunday mornings, Sunday nights and Wednesday nights.

"I'm sure it's been, at times, hard for them," Miles said.
"Someone asked me, 'How do you stay so long at one church?' I said, 'The first thing you have to do is find a good church.' These people have watched us grow. In many ways they helped raise our family."

Congratulations to Pastor Donnie, Mrs. Trudy and The Peace Church.

40th Wedding Anniversary

Pastor Daggett Duncan and Sister Judith Celebrate 40 Years of Marriage. Congratulations to them on this great milestone!

November 22nd, marked the 50th Anniversary Celebration of the First Free Will Baptist Church in Inman, SC.

In 1965 the vision became a reality with the first service being held in a store front building on 14 Mill Street, with only five in attendance. But now the church is the central hub of The Gwen Hendrix Hispanic Bible Inst., Brazil & Beyond Ministries, as well as home to several hundred weekly attendees.

1st FWB Church Charleston Has Grand Opening: On February 27th and 28th the 1st FWB Church Charleston had their grand opening weekend. Saturday began at 11am with several music groups performing, a jump castle and slide, a free BBQ dinner and open house tours of our new facility. On Sunday they had a testimony time beginning at 10am and followed by a dedication and celebration service.
